The Annual ISCA Fall Fest is Sunday, October 21st

By Celeste Raker-Dillen, Vice President of Social Committee

Join your neighbors in fun and games at the Annual ISCA Fall Fest on Sunday, October 21st at the Indian Spring Recreation Center. The merriment starts at 3 p.m. and wraps up around 6 p.m. Kids can enjoy face painting, moon bounces, arts and crafts, fun games and more.

Think you have a great chili recipe? Bring along a pot and enter to win the coveted Golden Ladle prize in the great chili cook-off. If chili is not your thing, please bring cornbread to share for last names beginning A-N or dessert if your last name falls in the O-Z category. Grilled hotdogs and the traditional root beer floats will also be served.

And of course, holding true to tradition, the Annual Fall Fest Raffle promises all to have a chance at winning some fabulous prizes. Already we have gift certificates from Arbonne, Color Me Mine, Discovery Toys, Extracurricular ETC., Fuddruckers, McGinty's, Melaleuca—The Wellness Company and The EverGreen Home—and this is just the beginning! Tickets will be on sale during the event and at the September General Meeting and will sell for $1 per ticket or 6 for $5. You do not need to be present to win. All proceeds go into the ISCA general fund and help to cover the costs of the fine events hosted by the ISCA Social Committee throughout the year.

This event is FREE to current ISCA members. Not a member? No worries. Phyllis Zusman at fzusman@erols.com will be happy to assist you in renewing or becoming a bonafide ISCA member for only $10 per family per year.

Finally, no ISCA event is ever complete without its VOLUNTEERS. We need help setting up, cleaning up, grilling hot dogs, manning moon bounces, serving floats, painting faces, and a whole bunch more. Please contact Kelly Lynam at kandblynam@erols.com for further information.

So all ISCA neighbors—mark your calendars for Sunday, October 21st to bring an empty belly, food to share, money for a chance to win some great prizes, a helping hand, and a willingness to have some fun! We will see you there....

President's Column

By Walter J. Gottlieb, New ISCA President

My family moved to Indian Spring eight years ago. Our first impression was that it was like a Hollywood movie set of a neighborhood—kids playing on the street, the community newsletter being delivered by wagon, picturesque streets and houses, neighbors that cared about each other. It seemed too good to be real. Eight years later, we know it is very real.

I was honored to be elected ISCA president, and appreciate the opportunity to serve the neighborhood which has served my family so well these past years.

We have an exciting season ahead, with the Fall Fest on October 21 and a debate between U.S. Congressional candidates Al Wynn and Donna Edwards on November 8th which ISCA will cosponsor near our neighborhood.

Our first general meeting on September 17 will focus on the controversy over the fate of the proposed music venue in downtown Silver Spring—including the collapse of the deal between Montgomery County and the Birchmere and the new negotiations with Live Nation. We hope to see as many of you as possible at the meeting and to hear your thoughts and concerns about the future of entertainment in downtown Silver Spring.

Thanks to everyone who braved the heat and humidity to participate in Indian Spring's National Night Out event on August 7th. Officers from the Montgomery County Police, Silver Spring division paid a visit to affirm their commitment to keeping our neighborhood safe.

Though we live in a low crime neighborhood, there has been a series of car break-ins here in which items were stolen from residents' vehicles. One of the officers at the National Night Out event pulled me aside and asked me to urge everyone not to leave anything of value in their cars. He suggested taking vehicle registrations, identifying documents and other valuables such as GPS devices out of the car rather than leaving them in glove compartments where they could fall prey to car thieves.

Having only been President since July, I am already impressed by the talent and dedication of the ISCA Board. The Board is working on developing compelling topics for future general meetings as well as some potential special events and initiatives that will be new to ISCA.

We are also working to streamline our website so that you can join ISCA or renew your membership online. We urge all of you to join or renew. The more members we have, the more great things ISCA can do.

As the new President, I would love to hear from you about your ideas, concerns, and suggestions for topics that ISCA can pursue in 2007-2008. My email is president@iscaonline.com. I love the neighborhood my family first encountered eight years ago. Let's make it even safer, even more vibrant, and even more engaged in the issues affecting Silver Spring's future.

Fall Mums available through Highland View PTA

Now's the time to start thinking about the fall colors you would like to add to your yard. The PTA of Highland View (neighborhood public elementary school) is selling beautiful, large fall mums from September 6 to September 25. Proceeds from the mum sale support the various activities and programs of the PTA, which directly impact students at Highland View.

These Behnke Nurseries' Signature mums measure a generous 12-16" in diameter and arrive ready to plant in your gardens or to fill pots and planters. The mums are available in five vibrant colors: yellow, lavender/pink, white, bronze, and red. Each large plant costs only $6. All mums will be available for pick-up at Highland View (9010 Providence) on Saturday, October 6, from 10a.m.-12p.m.

There are several ways that you can purchase these wonderful fall mums:

Place an order with a neighbor who has a child(ren) at Highland View,

Call or email Rebecca Lane, a mum sale coordinator, at 301-587-3383 or Reblane@starpower.net, or

Welcome to our new neighbor Dylan Fay born in July to Stephen and Amy Fay of Caroline Avenue. Farewell to long time neighbor Dr. William Yesback who moved in September to Delaware after living here for at least 30 years (probably many more).

Greeting from Allegra Tasaki, New ISCA Secretary

I wanted to take a quick moment at the end of a very busy summer for everyone, to introduce myself to those in the neighborhood who are not familiar with me and my family. We are long-time Silver Spring residents living in the ISCA community for four years. We are proud to be a part of such a fun neighborhood, and I am proud to serve our community through a number of volunteer opportunities. Currently, I am a stay-at-home mom who has worked professionally in the non-profit and Internet start-up arenas before starting a family. I serve intermittently on the ISCA Social Committee, and as the ISCA "Welcome Wagon", providing new neighbors new orientation packages. This past month, I attended my first ISCA Board meeting with our new President, Walter Gottlieb. One of our main focuses was on setting an ISCA General Meeting calendar of discussion items. Many of you may have seen my posting on the listerv about choosing appropriate and interesting topics for our community to discuss. If you did not get a chance to read the post or have questions, feel free to contact me at tasaking@verizon.net or call me at my home 301-565-8377. In the meantime, I hope to get to know you all better through attendance at Fall Fest (don't forget to pay your dues!) or at one of the Family Happy Hours (my family and I will be hosting the one on October 19th). Have a great start of the fall season!

National Night Out

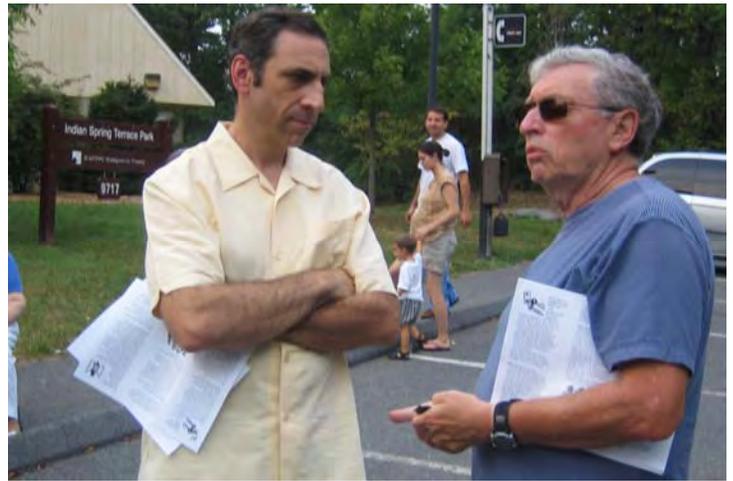

by Tony Hausner

Neighborhood Watch Organizer

I want to thank a number of people for their help with National Night Out. We had a good turnout, especially considering the heat. Quite a few photos hopefully have been posted on the isca website by now. View them at <http://iscaonline.com/iscaonline/gallery.html>

National Night Out is designed to: 1) heighten crime and drug prevention awareness, 2) generate support for, and participation in, local anti-crime programs, 3) strengthen neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships, and 4) send a message to criminals letting them know that neighborhoods are organized and fighting back.

From 7:00 to 7:15 p.m., the police visited our neighborhood. A small squad of police cars and motorcycle cops came through our neighborhood. I want to especially thank all the police who came including Commander Don Johnson, the new commander for the Silver Spring district, Lt. Steve Auger, our beat lieutenant, Lt. Robert McCullagh, Officer Joy Patil, our wonderful community relations officer, and quite a few other police from the Silver Spring station. Staff from the State prosecutor's office were also present.

I particularly want to thank Toba Hausner, Pat Reynolds, Jeanne Hammer, Bernie Moorin, and Tariq and Amy Shower for all their help with handing out the ice cream and literature. Thanks to our new president, Walter Gottlieb, for serving as emcee, and to the other block captains who came including Ed Freestone, Mary Anne Hess, and Vanessa Krabacher.

At the affair, we introduced a new version of our Neighborhood Watch Brochure which has been placed on the watch section of the iscaonline web site, <http://iscaonline.com/iscaonline/watch.html>. I want to particularly thank Ali Breen for all her help in producing this brochure, Vanessa Krabacher for her help in previous drafts, Toba Hausner for her input, and several block captains for their comments.

Your block captains should be distributing the new copies of the brochure in the near future to the residents on their block. Please see them if you don't receive one. A recent list of block captains is in our web section. For further information or to volunteer to do more, please contact me at 301-587-6943 or tthausner@yahoo.com

Annual ISCA Independence Day Parade

By Celeste Raker-Dillen, Vice President, Social Committee

Red, white and blue blazed on Saturday, June 30 during the annual ISCA neighborhood Independence Day celebration. Kids decked bikes, scooters, wagons and strollers with stars and stripes for a short parade through the neighborhood. All ended up on Lawndale Drive for refreshing popsicles, tasty watermelon, and buttery popcorn. Many children’s smiles were brightened by face paints and balloons. All enjoyed the music of 3 Drink Minimum as they played on Ole and Jeanne Varmer’s porch “stage.” Arlene Montemarano’s Lemonade For a Good Cause resulted in a nice donation to Iraq and Afghanistan Veterans of America, thanks to those who savored her purely homemade, fresh-squeezed lemonade. ISCA welcomed State Delegate, Heather Mizeur, who stated that Indian Spring is one of her favorite neighborhoods.

This ISCA event was made possible by our neighborhood volunteers. A really big thanks goes to Arlene Montemarano for all of her tremendous efforts in providing the host lawn including tables, tents, popcorn and so much more. Thanks to Kristen Henley Hills for spearheading the details. Thanks to Eileen Fisher, Stephanie Helsing, Jen Holland, Elaine Lindsay, and Kelly Lynam, all part of the ISCA Social Committee, for their helping hands. This fun event that exemplifies the visions of our forefathers—a free and peaceful community united in celebration. Thanks to all who attended.

News From Northwood High...

From Jay Goldman

Northwood High School, the high school serving students who live in Indian Spring, will operate with all four grade levels in 2007-2008. The school, which was closed by the county in 1985 for declining enrollment, reopened in September 2004 with just a 9th-grade class and has added a grade level each year since, leading to this year's enrollment of approximately 1,350 students.

The school is introducing the Early College Scholars Program this semester. The program is allowing 26 seniors to take one or more undergraduate courses during the school day in a variety of disciplines at University of Maryland for college credit. Also debuting this fall is the Northwood Wellness Center, available to the community as well as students and staff.

Principal Henry Johnson Jr. has announced the school will add a new academy program next fall: the Academy of Musical Theater. The school has three existing academies, all of which are open to students in the Downcounty Consortium.

Lastly, Northwood will host its first Homecoming football game at its newly refurbished stadium behind the school on Saturday, October 13. The opponent is Einstein HS, and game time is 2 p.m.

Northwood is located at 919 University Blvd. West. It has an active PTSA and a sports boosters group, both of which meet monthly during the school year.
